Town Shop, The ...* Jessie Brown, daughter of Mr. Henderson (Henderson Hotel) started business in the old Spofford Drug Store location, the store front to the left of the Orpheum Theater, in 1959. There was a soda fountain and a couple of booths. "Bud" Chase, Paul Tetreault and I met most every day in the Town Shop for coffee. Paul usually ended up picking up the tab! Bud would pick a number and I would pick a number ... Paul had to guess a number between our two. We even let him win ... once in a while. The game was, of course rigged! But, what-the-hell ... Paul was knocking down $30.00 to $40.00 a week cutting hair and that was more than Bud and I were making together!!! (1961)

One evening I went to the Town Shop for a cup of coffee. Jessie complained to me that her Hamilton wrist watch never ran more than a month after having it cleaned and oiled. She said it was because of electricity in her body! This was a statement, through the years, I have heard time and time again. If that were true you would electrocute everyone you touched! Anyway ... I explained to her that there had to be something mechanically wrong with her watch. After some discussion I said I would overhaul her watch for $8.50 (It's $75.00 plus parts today!) and not charge her for six months, and then only if it was still running properly.

Jessie took me up on this proposition and I disassembled the watch and examined each and every piece, each and every tooth on each and every wheel, etc... Finally I found a tiny chip in the corner of one of the pallet jewels. I replaced it, cleaned and oiled the watch and gave it back to her. Four months later we moved to Baltimore. A year, or so, later we can back to Woodsville for a vacation and I stopped in to see Jessie. I was overhauling watches in Baltimore for $50.00 to $85.00 at the time. And had charged as much as $375.00 to overhaul many high grade watches like Rolex, Patek Philip, and others. At one time I charged $550.00 to overhaul Wayne King's $20.00 gold piece wrist watch! He was the "King of Swing" in the days of the big bands.

Back to Jessie. She smiled, said hi, slid a $10.00 bill across the counter, smiled again and pointed to her Hamilton watch ... still running!
